BCBSM board elects Johnson vice chairman, appoints Dr. Sprague

The Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan Board of Directors elected Spencer Johnson of Okemos as board vice chairman and appointed F. Remington Sprague, M.D., of Muskegon to a seat on the board.

Dr. Sprague is vice president and chief medical officer for Mercy Health Partners in Muskegon. He was appointed to a two-year term on BCBSM's board beginning April 23. He fills the seat for physicians previously held by Dr. MacKeigan.

The 35-member BCBSM Board of Directors includes eight seats filled by medical professionals, four filled by gubernatorial appointments and one by the Blues. The remaining 22 seats are filled by Blues customers from small, medium and large companies, and individual subscribers.
